

Joseph W Cardinale
San Francisco, California

Experience

January 2014 – Present:

Litigation Adjusters, Inc. As a Sr. Adjuster, Joe monitors trials, attends mediations, settlement conferences, and small claims hearings, for a variety of insurance companies and T.P.A.'s

Past Experience: Over 46 years industry experience with the last 27 years with AIG. Positions held with AIG varied. Served as VP of Complex Casualty Claims, Manager Transport Claims for the Western United States, Manager all Claims Offices for the Western Region and RVP of Claims for the Southwest Region.

Responsible for all aspects of claims oversight including high exposure complex claims, involving coverage, liability determination, litigation management, negotiations, and resolution strategies. Prior to AIG Joe spent 20 years with Transport Indemnity Company, in various positions, including, Field Investigator, Trial Preparation Technician and Claim Manager. Joe has a strong background in litigated claims, with his strengths being investigation, coverage, negotiation and claim resolution strategies.

Education

Attended San Francisco City College, San Francisco, Ca

United States Army Trained in Microwave and Satellite Communication

Served in Vietnam 1967-1968

Insurance Institute Courses:

Business Law I and II

Medical Evaluation and Terminology

Insurance Principles

Workers' Compensation Law and Investigation

CPCU Courses:

Risk Management I and II